

2024 YEAR IN REVIEW

Since 2011, Divine Threads has been committed to weaving strength, dignity, and hope into the lives of women overcoming trauma. Whether escaping domestic abuse, human trafficking, war, addiction, or reentering society after incarceration, these women have faced profound upheaval—marked by emotional pain, poverty, and isolation.

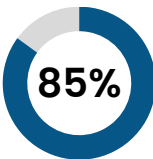

Thanks to this support, over 600 women have been equipped to face life’s challenges with renewed confidence—learning to care for themselves and their families within a safe, compassionate community.

Our dedicated team walks alongside them on their journey toward healing, offering a range of programs focused on emotional healing, life skills training, and makeovers.

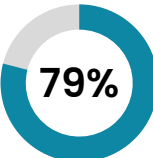

As we reflect on 2024, we are honored to share some meaningful moments with you—our Divine Threads community. Thank you for your unwavering support and for continuing to champion our mission to empower and revive these courageous women on the path to renewal.

In 2024 Divine Threads...

Received 855 Hours of Volunteer Service

Served 85 Women Overcoming Trauma

Created a DT Graduate Program to Serve More Women

From "Serving More Women" to "Serving Women More"

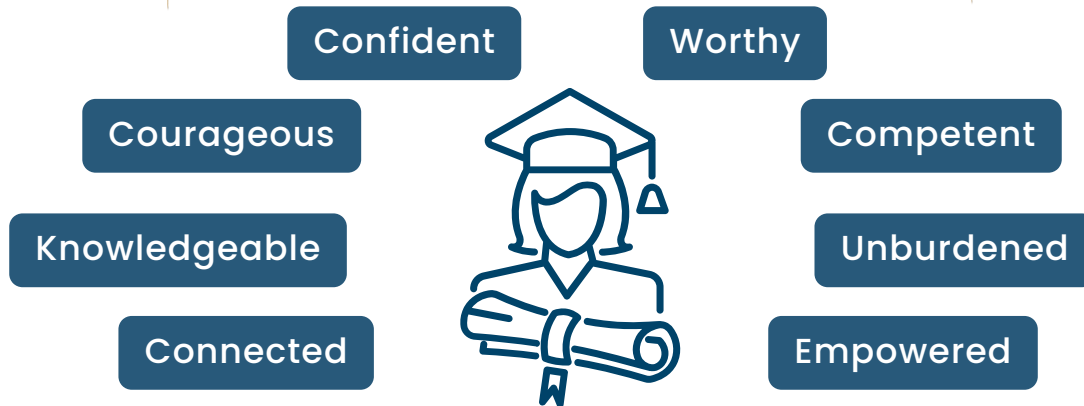

In 2024 we had a handful of women participate in multiple Divine Threads programs providing Emotional Healing, Life Skills Training, and of course Makeovers. Unknown is one of those women, and we would love to share her story with you.

While each individual program is impactful in and of itself, seeing the impact on women who completed multiple programs over months of time with us has inspired us to find ways to incentivize women to participate in more than just one makeover. We created a DT Graduate program that focuses on healing from the inside out and started this transition in 2025. We look forward to watching the number of women completing multiple programs grow.
